INTROIT

The Introit at the Procession this morning, Ecce Sacerdos magnum, was sung as the Introit/Procession at the dedication of St. Joseph Church in 1949.

There were 13 male schola singers led by Madame Tremblay-Baker, the first St. Joseph organist-choir director, who served from 1948-1975.

TRANSLATION FROM THE LATIN

*Behold a great priest who in his days pleased God:
Therefore by an oath the Lord made him increase among his people.
He gave him the blessing of all nations and confirmed His covenant upon his head.
Therefore by an oath the Lord made him to increase among his people.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost ...*

INTRODUCTORY RITES

Collect

Bishop: Let us pray.

Look upon us, O God,
Creator and ruler of all things,
and, that we may feel the working of your mercy,
grant that we may serve you with all our heart.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Isaiah 50:5-9a

Lector: The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.
I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.
The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.
He is near who upholds my right;
if anyone wishes to oppose me,
let us appear together.
Who disputes my right?
Let that man confront me.
See, the Lord GOD is my help;
who will prove me wrong?
The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116:3-4, 5-6, 8-9

℞. I will walk be - fore the Lord, in the land of the liv - ing.

Second Reading

James 2:14-18

Lector: What good is it, my brothers and sisters,
if someone says he has faith but does not have works?
Can that faith save him?
If a brother or sister has nothing to wear
and has no food for the day,
and one of you says to them,
"Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well, "
but you do not give them the necessities of the body,
what good is it?
So also faith of itself,
if it does not have works, is dead.

Indeed someone might say,
"You have faith and I have works."
Demonstrate your faith to me without works,
and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Owen Alstott

Gospel

Mark 8:27-35

Priest The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Priest: Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi.
Along the way he asked his disciples,
"Who do people say that I am?"
They said in reply,
"John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets."
And he asked them,
"But who do you say that I am?"
Peter said to him in reply,
"You are the Christ."
Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days.

He spoke this openly.

Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples,
rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan.

You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself,
take up his cross, and follow me.

For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it,
but whoever loses his life for my sake
and that of the gospel will save it."

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord, Jesus Christ.

All remain standing until the Bishop has kissed the Book of the Gospels.

Offertory Proper

Sanctificavit Moyses altare Domino

Exodus 24:4, 5

Moses consecrated an altar to the LORD, offering upon it holocausts, and sacrificing victims.
He made an evening sacrifice to the LORD God
for an odor of sweetness,
in the sight of the children of Israel.

Prayer after Communion

Bishop: Let us pray.

May the working of this heavenly gift, O Lord, we pray,
take possession of our minds and bodies,
so that its effects, and not our desires,
may always prevail in us.

Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

CONCLUDING RITE

St. Joseph Church History

St. Francis de Sales Church was established as an off-shoot of St. Peter's parish in the mid-summer of 1920 and witnessed remarkable growth and progress. The church, located at 516 Maple Street, was nicknamed "the cardboard cathedral" because it was a rebuilt K of C wartime recreation building from Camp Jackson.

The first pastor was Fr. Louis Jacquier of the Oblate Fathers of St. Francis de Sales, the church being named in honor of the order. On July 15, 1946, Fr. Alfred F. Kamler was assigned as pastor. Fr. Kamler had served as a chaplain with the Marine Corps in the Pacific theatre during World War II. Fr. Thomas M. Jellico reported to the parish in September 1946, as Assistant Pastor.

Throughout this time, St. Francis de Sales parish continued to grow steadily. The modest frame structure soon became inadequate to accommodate the expanding parish. The pastor and people prayed, hoped, and planned for a new church. But where could the resources be found?

Msgr. Charles Dubois Wood, P.A., who served for many years as a priest of the Diocese of Charleston, made provision in his will for a bequest of $120,000 to be used to build a church in South Carolina. His Excellency the Most Rev. Emmet M. Walsh, D.D., Bishop of Charleston, designated St. Francis de Sales parish as beneficiary. Additional contributions by the Catholic and non-Catholics of Columbia made possible the establishment of a new church.

On October 17, 1948, the cornerstone of St. Joseph Catholic Church was laid by Bishop Walsh. The principle address was given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin C. Murphy, pastor of St. Peter's Church. In addition to Fr. Kamler and Fr. Jellico, many clergy from the Diocese of Charleston, parishioners, friends, and benefactors of St. Francis were in attendance at this ancient ritual.

The Church was later dedicated on September 11, 1949, by His Excellency the Most Rev. Francis P. Keough, D.D., Archbishop of Baltimore, with Bishop Walsh.

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF COMMUNION

FOR CATHOLICS:

As Catholics, we are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession.

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS:

We welcome you to our celebration, yet because Catholics believe the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are encouraged to come forward, with their arms folded across their chests, to receive a blessing. All are asked to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

FOR NON-CHRISTIANS:

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.
