For more information, go to:

<https://www.stjosephcolumbia.org/massintentions>

Please note that in an effort to allow for Masses to be offered in a more timely manner and due to the size of our parish and the number of intentions available annually, we are having to limit Mass intention requests to 3 per parishioner per calendar year.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY

is extended to the family of Allison Corbett (8.3.22), wife of Jim, mother of Sean, Sam and Kate. May her soul rest in peace.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR NURSERY

Now that things are getting back to normal... we would love to offer a Nursery, starting this fall, during the 10:30 AM Mass. It will be open to serve young children (between 6 months and 3 years) whose families are attending Sunday Mass at 10:30 AM.

The nursery will be operated on a first come/first serve basis – driven by both the staff available and number and ages of the children needing care during the Mass. The nursery will be staffed by a combination of part time staff (paid position) and volunteers who have completed the Safe Haven online training and received a background screening required by the Diocese of Charleston. If you are interested in applying to volunteer or apply for the part time position as Nursery Coordinator, please contact Mindy McBurney, 803.254.7646 ext. 423 or mindy@stjosephcolumbia.org.

SACRAMENTAL CELEBRATIONS

FROM THE ORGAN BENCH HISTORY OF THE ST. JOSEPH ORGANS #2 OF 2

Although plans were underway in 1979 to replace the failing 1949 Moller organ, those plans changed suddenly. Father Kamler died and was replaced by Father Louis Sterker. Mrs. Margaret (Jackson) McDonald, organist and choir director beginning in 1975, moved to New Jersey and Mrs. Teresa Riley became the new music director and organist. A new organ committee was formed, and a different path was taken. Another Moller organ with electro-pneumatic key action replaced the 1949 instrument in 1982. The 1982 organ failed in 2009 after 27 years of service. It is silent today.

A small electronic organ was purchased in fall 2009 after the 1982 organ drew its last breath. The electronic instrument was intended to be temporary. For many reasons, it was decided to wait for the next generation of St. Joseph musicians to move the parish forward in exploring the possibility of a new St. Joseph pipe organ.

Music directors and organists of St. Joseph Parish:

- 1948-1975 Madame Tremblay Baker, choir director and organist
- 1975-1981 Margaret (Jackson) McDonald, choir director and organist
- 1981-2011, Teresa Riley, music director and organist
- 2011-2013, Janet Marks, acting music director and organist
- 2014-2019, Janet Marks, music director and organist
- March 2019, David Cochrane, music director, Brad Cunningham, organist

SPIRITUAL THEME FOR THE 2022-2023 SCHOOL YEAR

We are excited to share our spiritual theme for the 2022-2023 school year: 1 Peter 4:8-11 "Serve one another with the gifts you have received." It is in the moments that we serve others using the gifts that we have been given that we are invited to a deeper reflection of the Lord and his work in our lives. We belong to a school community of faith where fellowship, spirituality, and service are encouraged and nurtured. We look forward to showcasing how our staff, students, and families connect to this spiritual theme throughout the year. Follow us on Facebook (St. Joseph Catholic School, Columbia S.C.) and Instagram (@stjoescola) to see the many ways we will be living out our spiritual theme this year.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

Attention all men: If you have been thinking about joining the Men's Prayer Group, the next few weeks would be a great time to take a look.

The group meets every Tuesday morning at 6:30 AM in the Blossom Street House, entering through the back door facing the main parking lot.

We begin by praying the morning prayer from The Liturgy of the Hours (also known as the Divine Office—see <https://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgy-of-the-hours> for more information) shortly after 6:30 AM, and then begin discussing a book after that. We end at 7:25 AM, in time for Mass, for those who can stay.

On Tuesday, August 9, we will have the second week of a two-week tutorial on The Liturgy of the Hours, using information from Bishop Robert Barron. Then, starting on August 16, we will start discussing Peter Kreeft's Prayer for Beginners. As one reviewer has said, Kreeft claims that "he himself is still a beginner in prayer, and this book is for all those, like him, who feel that they are not good at praying but desire to become much better at it."

We welcome all newcomers! If you have questions, please contact Ken Woodington, kwoodington@sc.rr.com, or Bob Henry, henry737@aol.com.

WATCH

EDITH STEIN: THE SEVENTH CHAMBER

During this very special week for the Augustine Institute, we celebrate both our patron, St. Augustine, and his mother, St. Monica! As a preeminent Doctor of the Church, Augustine has been said to be “the holiest of the wise and the wisest of the holy.” To celebrate this great Church Father, please enjoy Augustine: A Voice for all Generations!

LEARN

FORMED NOW: MARTYRS AND MONASTICS

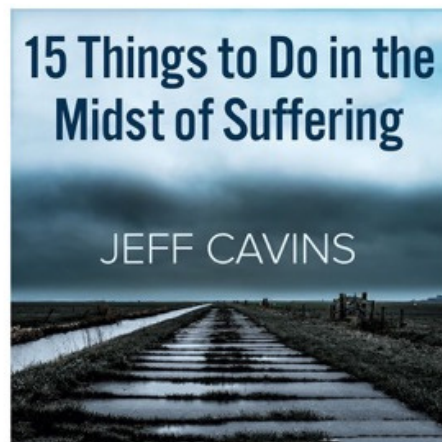

We celebrate many martyrs and monastics during this rich week in the liturgical calendar. But how did the Church become a place of heroic martyrdom and steadfast monasticism? In this video, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss these themes and their history in the early Church.

LISTEN

15 THINGS TO DO IN THE MIDST OF SUFFERING BY JEFF CAVINS

The Church celebrates the feast of St. Maximilian Kolbe this week. Kolbe, a Polish Catholic priest, fearlessly suffered the horrors of Auschwitz, where he was eventually martyred because of his faith. The life of this Saint reminds us that suffering is a mystery we all face at many points in our lives. In this talk, internationally known speaker Jeff Cavins shares his insights on this difficult topic and shows us how our suffering can become redemptive.
